

International Network of Safety & Health Professional Organisations

A Global Alliance Dedicated to Advancing the Occupational Safety and Health Profession

Nominations invited for the INSHPO Communications Committee 2026

Sl. No	Description	Details
1	Background	INSHPO invites nominations from its membership associations to join the Communications Committee, established to shape the development of INSHPO policy and procedure which defines how we communicate to a global audience. INSHPO's vision to become a truly global entity means we need to communicate effectively across borders, cultures, ethnicity, race and global contexts. As the world of work continues to evolve, driven by technological change, emerging risks, leadership expectations, sustainability, and social responsibility, this committee aims to ensure our communications remain current, credible and inclusive.
2	Purpose of the Communications Committee 2026	The Communications Committee provides oversight of INSHPO's external communications, ensuring they are strategically aligned, culturally appropriate, and consistent in supporting growth, engagement and trusted relationships across a diverse global membership. The Communications Committee does not undertake operational communications delivery, create or issue communications on behalf of other Board sub-committees, or assume ownership of organisational strategy, partnership development, or capability frameworks. Its role is not to replace day-to-day engagement functions.

3	Who Should Nominate / Be Nominated	INSHPO welcomes nominations from professionals from member organizations, who demonstrate: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Experience in occupational health and safety, risk management, or related disciplines • Strategic thinking and interest in professional capability and workforce development • Experience in global communication, social media, or leadership (desirable) • Ability to collaborate across cultures, regions, and professional perspectives • Commitment to contributing time, expertise, and constructive input INSHPO strongly encourages nominations that enhance geographical, cultural, gender, sectoral, and professional diversity, ensuring that our communication deliverables reflect truly global perspectives.
4	IGCF 2026 Committee Leadership & committee size	INSHPO EC nominated following members: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Greg Dearsly, INSHPO Secretary 2025/2026 - Amiirah Peerbaccus, INSHPO Intern 2025/2026 (IOSHM) Members: Max 5 members from INSHPO member organizations
5	Term & Time Commitment	Committee Term: 3 months Meeting Frequency: App. One-hour virtual meeting per month (60-90 minutes)
6	Contribution	Review of documents, written inputs, and participation in working groups as required
7	Why participate?	Committee members will have the opportunity to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Develop a communications framework that will enhance our communications considering different cultural views of membership. • Create a list of hashtags for social media. • Create an annual report for 2025. • Review and update the communications SOP. • Review and update the communications plan. • Collaborate with respected international leaders and subject matter experts • Strengthen professional networks and global leadership visibility
8	Nomination Process	Nominations may be self-nominated or nominated by an INSHPO member organization <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Nominees should provide: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ A brief professional profile or CV ○ A short statement outlining their interest and relevant experience • Nominations will be reviewed to ensure balanced global representation and alignment with committee needs

9	Nomination deadline and selection notification dates	Last date: 8th May 2026 Selection & Notification: 29th May 2026
----------	---	--