MASTER CLASS WORKSHOP SERIES

DR. NIPPIN ANAND LEARNING FROM ACCIDENTS: THE COSTA CONCORDIA CASE

The Costa Concordia case is organised as a comprehensive human story of an accident. The five workshops will immerse you in the emerging concepts in safety sciences and, by the end you will have accomplished a course in contemporary safety covering a broad syllabus. Throughout the five sessions, there is ample opportunity to reflect on your experience and relate with the case.

You will need to see these session live (8.30 - 10.30am) Wed 15th, 22nd and 29th July as due to the re-opening of the Captains case in the European Court of Justice to ensure no unwarranted privacy breach allegations.

Please note: NZISM are no longer permitted to record the workshops.

MEET: KATE BROOKS NZISM CANTERBURY BRANCH COMMITTEE MEMBER

Kate has worked in the asbestos and H&S industry for over 20 years, mainly in the UK before moving to NZ in 2013. Kate started work as an asbestos consultant in the UK while looking for a "proper job" in a field more related to her degrees in Marine Biology and Environmental Conservation. She has extensive experience in asbestos air monitoring, and is a Licensed Asbestos Assessor, asbestos bulk analysis and surveying buildings for asbestos content. She has also worked for the United Kingdom Accreditation Service assessing quality management systems to ISO standards, and assessing technical competence of asbestos testing and inspection organisations. Kate now undertakes Technical Expert work for IANZ.

Kate and her husband fell in love with New Zealand during a year long working holiday in 2009-2010 and made the permanent move to live here in 2013.

Kate worked with Fletchers as the asbestos specialist in their H&S team, and is proud of the work done there to improve knowledge on asbestos and also improve the standards of removal work. During her time with Fletchers, she completed the NEBOSH IGC in Occupational H&S and joined NZISM. Kate was part of the advisory panel, assisting MBIE and Worksafe on the new Asbestos Regulations and associated Approved Code of Practice for the management and removal of asbestos.

In 2016 Kate took the plunge and set up a consultancy business - KB Consulting, which has been a huge challenge and has had a variety of clients in different sections.

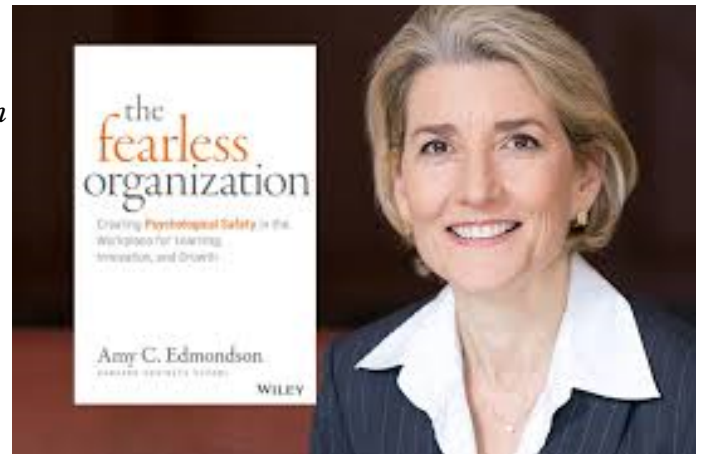

Kate has recently started a new role with the CDHB as the Asbestos Manager for Canterbury and the West Coast.

In her spare time Kate loves to play golf (17 handicap) and drink wine (a lovely Shiraz)

NEED A GOOD READ

The Fearless Organisation by Amy C Edmondson

Amy Edmondson is a professor at Harvard, well known for her work in teaming and learning organisations. This book is focussed on creating psychological safety in the workplace for learning, innovation and growth. It takes well researched theory and backs this up with relatable and practical examples. You can view Amy's Ted Talk on this topic at <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=LhoLuui9gX8>

Please remember your Canterbury Branch committee is working hard for you to continue providing quality speakers and events as part of your membership. There is also a lot of work that goes on in behind the scenes. Efforts put in are purely voluntary and it is vital the branch is supported.

If you have any questions, topics of interest or know of a speaker you feel would be of value to the members please email canterbury@nzism.org

South Canterbury Network Group

Work is progressing behind the scenes to get this group up and going. Plans are afoot to set up a meet and greet social event. Watch this space for more details
