“Keeping you working on the right side of the Law”

NZISM WAIKATO BRANCH

CPD DAY 24 July 2017
Speakers

Paul graduated from Massey University with a B.Technology (Food Technology) in 1985 and worked in Australia for five years before returning to NZ in 1990. Working in the food ingredients sector in Australia and New Zealand, he became a shareholder and technical director of Hawkins Watts before selling his shares in late 2011. In early 2014 Paul chaired a consortium to establish Upper Hutt Hire and has been a Director and Shareholder of the business since.

Paul is a Fellow of the NZ Institute of Food Science and Technology, and a lead food safety auditor. He is also a member of the NZ Institute of Directors and a member of the Massey University Food Pilot advisory board. Paul is also studying for a Diploma in H&S at SIT.

Kate Ashcroft—Enforceable Undertaking

Kate Ashcroft, Copeland Ashcroft Law. Kate has specialised in employment and health and safety throughout her career, and is passionate about providing commercially pragmatic, tailored solutions to client issues. In 2015 and 2016, Kate was recognised by the international legal directory Asia Law as a “Leading Lawyer” in New Zealand. She regularly presents at conferences and contributes articles to various publications on employment and health and safety issues.

Kate acts for employers across a range of industries, giving strategic, compliance and best practice advice on non-contentious matters as well as providing representation in disputes. Her experience includes work with a large top tier national law firm, an award winning national employment law boutique, and on secondment in-house in both the private and public sectors.

Kate is Tauranga based but regularly travels to Hamilton and Auckland and connects with clients throughout New Zealand.

Kate is a member of the Auckland District Law Society Incorporated’s Employment Law Committee, the NZLS Women in Law Committee (Tauranga) and of the Institute of Directors.

Helen Parkes—Reporting to the Board

Helen Parkes Helen is a Chartered Fellow of the Institute of Occupational Health and Safety, a Prince 2 Practitioner and a former Environmental Health Officer. This gives her a broad view of safety and health and a unique perspective that she brings to her clients. She is tertiary qualified in: Occupational health and safety, Environmental health (vet.aux), Public health and Marine geography

David J Williams—Undercover Brother (a case study on worker engagement)

Knowledge Management Specialist. Markham Williams & Associates Ltd

David is a boatbuilder by trade, a teacher by vocation and business consultant by profession. David is currently completing a PhD Thesis on “Effective Knowledge Management at the Supervisory Level in Selected New Zealand Industries.”

With his extensive experience on the shop floor, in education, and in management, he is uniquely positioned to provide strategic advice, coaching and training on what is arguably the most important resource in business today – KNOWLEDGE
Details for the Day

8.45am  Registration and introduction

9.00am  Speaker 1— Paul Harrison—Implementation of an Integrated Quality, H&S Programme in Hire Business.

10.15am  Morning Tea

10.45am  Speaker 2—Kate Ashcroft—Enforceable Undertaking

12.00pm  Lunch

1.00pm  Speaker 3—Helen Parkes—Reporting to the Board

2.15pm  Afternoon Tea

2.45pm  Speaker 4—David J Williams—Undercover Brother (a case study on worker engagement)

4.00pm  Event Finished

Venue

SKYCITY Hamilton
Conference Room—Level 1

Parking

The SKYCITY Hamilton Carpark provides 340 carpark spaces with easy entry from Alma Street, off Victoria Street, 24 hours a day!

Registration

To register please use the member login on the nzism.co.nz website under and click on BUY TICKETS.

Look for the event by date: 24 July 2017

Non-Members or any queries please contact Steve Sharpe at steve@sharpe.solutions for registration.

Cost

Members $175 (inc GST)  Non-Members $350 (inc GST)